

A change in global patterns.

1901 – 2020

Sea levels were first noticed to rise in the Australian region rising from 125m below to 2m above modern sea levels.